RUIN RAISING.

Wheeling Intelligencer.—The free lie "take off" of the Free-traders surprises even some of them. It is hair raising and not wage raising.

IS IT, DECIDEDLY.

Washington Post.—Mr. Croker is out in a four column defense of his management of Tammany Hall. It must be getting warm in Richard's corner.

PLAUSIBLE.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—Perhaps Cleveland wants to get up a fight with Hawaii in order to justify the war taxes that his party is preparing to impose upon the country.

A NEW WAY TO TELL OLD LIES.

Truth.—There are trees in California so tall that it takes three men and a boy to look to the top of them. One looks until he is tired and then another comes where he left off.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Indianapolis Journal.—Teacher—Tommy, have you found out the difference between a king and a monarch yet?

Tommy—I asked paw about it, and he says that in a monarchy the people obey the rulers because they respect them, and in a republic they obey the bosses 'cause they can't help it.

FITTED FOR A BRITISH CABINET.

Binghamton Republican.—In Grover Cleveland is not entitled to a seat in the "Grand Old Man" Gladstone's Cabinet as Secretary for the United States, we should like to know why. A large part of his annual message to Congress reads like a report to Her Royal Highness the Queen of Great Britain and Empress of India.

YANKER DUNESTY.

Washington Capital.—On Tuesday the Postoffice Department received a communication from a Postmaster in a small town in Vermont. It was an explanatory letter of some length, inclosing a postal card. The Postmaster had received one card in excess on an order for 550 and listened to return it before he was supposed guilty of embezzlement.

E. C. Minister.

T. F. CARPENTER of Circleville, O., was in the city to day on route to Flemingsburg, where he will be the guest of his parents for the next two weeks. Mr. Carpenter is a representative of the Carter Wire Fence Machine Company of Dury, O., and will combine business with his visit, appointing a few good agents during his stay here. The fence he has is certainly a valuable one, and all our farmers should see.

THE Y. M. C. A. will hold one of the most interesting Men's Meetings of the season at their new building on Main street at 3 o'clock. Honorable Wilson will lead, and his speech very familiar one. There should be a large crowd attend. Those of our young men who are looking for some place to go where they can find entertainment do well to make an hour of this well known hall. Good singing and short talks are the main features. All the members are requested to be present, as there will be business of some importance brought up which will require their attention immediately.

The following testimonial came to us:

Long & Price, Co., Adelphi, N.Y.—Gentlemen: For the past two years I have suffered terribly with what doctors call eczema. During this time I have used a number of well-known remedies, but could get no relief, until I met with Dr. Hale's Skin Remedy. This remedy can assure any amount of praise in them. At present I am in full health again, and I want to thank my sincere thanks to you for Dr. Hale's House Remedy. I am particularly relieved. I have always recommended it and never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." Fifty feet hotbeds for sale by John J. Bernold, Druggist.

THE OLD YEAR AND THE NEW.

Good-bye, old friend, good-bye;
Our friends should part in peace,

And with the parting, strife,
We'll have no more trouble.

Good-bye, dear mother, bring me off,
And days of gladness, too;

Now that thou must go,
I'll have no more trouble.

Good-bye, my dear home,
Toward which thy race was set;

And yet I cannot say adieu.

Good-bye, my dear sweet.

Good-bye, my dear old friend,
And with a sad farewell.

The New Year greets me with
A kiss upon my cheek;

My heart is glad, when I see
The world of joyous day.

May! It is not so now,
All things must have an end;

Good-bye, my dear old friend,

I'll speak of them with love,
And tenderness as well;

And death a last farewell.

The New Year greets me with
A kiss upon my cheek;

My heart is glad, when I see
The world of joyous day.

May! It is not so now,
All things must have an end;

It is sold at the same price as any other Mayfield paper—one cent a copy per issue, monthly, or sent by mail. If you are looking for the most for your money, you can get it in THE LEDGER.

Now is the time to subscribe—suppose you give it a month's trial.

Circulation More Than 1,000 Daily.

The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take space in your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unusable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

Where is That Banner Now?

Greenberg (Ind.) Review—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a large banner in their processions bearing this inscription:

FOR GROVE CLEVELAND
$25 A BUZZEL
FOR YOUR WEST.

A liberal reward will be given for that banner at this office, and no questions asked.

WORKMEN, protest, agitate, remonstrate, appeal against the attempt of Free trade fanatics to rob you of employment and injure your families. The Wilson conspiracy against your welfare can and must be defeated!

The net cash balance in the United States Treasury has declined to $83,914,000, or, exclusive of the gold reserve, to $83,890,300. Next month the heavy disbursements, it is expected, will make a further loss of at least $12,000,000. You never heard of such a thing under a Republican Administration. But wait until after the Wilson bill is passed, and then there won't be enough left to pay off the author of the bill.

The Hon. GALUSHIA A. GROW, formerly Speaker of the House of Representatives, is spoken of as candidate for the office of Congressman at Large from Pennsylvania, in place of General LILLY, deceased. Mr. Grow is hearty and vigorous, and ought to have many years of useful and brilliant service before him. His powerful intellect is still at his best, and he thoroughly understands the great questions before the country.

There will be regular services morning and evening at the M. E. Church on Third street. A watch night service will be held after the regular service has closed. One and all are invited to attend.

D. P. Holz, Pastor.

SERVICES conducted by the Pastor in the First Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evenings at the usual hours. Miss Sabbath-school at the German Church at 2:30 p. m. and Westminster S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. The public generally are invited to attend these services.

ABOUT 9:30 last night the residents of the Fourth Ward were invited from their homes within the bounds of the Central Presbyterian Church, but found it did not burn. After the entertainment there was a small lump of coal left burning in the grate, and the reflections of the black loosed exactly as though the interior of the Pastor's study was still afire. No damage, but a good scare.

REV. W. D. DAUGHERTY will preach at First Baptist Church Sunday at 7:30 p. m. He will preach from Exodus xxii:12. "Horests Employed as Instruments of Punishment."

KENTUCKY'S display at the World's Fair cost only $700,000, a check for $200,000 having been received yesterday by State Treasurer Hale as a part of the unbalanced budget of the $100,000 appropriation to the World's Fair.

The Central Presbyterian Church was the second largest in the city, and the entire congregation in the history of the church has been instrumental for the children. All were happy. Candy was pulled and songs were sung and all the little people thoroughly enjoyed it themselves.

At Pine Hill one man was killed and four seriously injured on account of women.

N. B. RIDGWAY, a tobacco merchant of Falmouth, was shot from behind and severely wounded.

THE suspensions of all kinds in Louisville for the year 1863 aggregate 160, with liabilities $4,027,553, while the assets are $4,139,125.

M. C. RUSSELL & SON's mule is stepping back as he looks as though he thinks he is being pulled. He is pulling a new dray for a new year's gift.

AN ADDRESS

To the Rank and File of the Knights of Labor.

Sovereign Unmercifully Scores Secret Carlisle's Scheme.

Bonds and Slavery Are Synonymous," Says
General Master Workman.
Calls Upon the Knights to Staburh-try Fight the Scheme to the Death.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 30.—A telegram has been received at the headquarters of the Knights of Labor stating that General Master Workman Sovereign had been taken suddenly ill at Hazelton, Pa., where he had gone on the business of the craft and on the advice of physicians had been taken a train for his home, Des Moines.

Prior to the general master workman's departure for Hazelton, he prepared an address to the rank and file of the order, denouncing Secretary of the Treasury Boutwell's recent attempt to grant him authority to issue two hundred millions in interest-bearing bonds.

The following are extracts from the document:

"The felling of bonds is an outrage upon a liberty-loving people. Bonds and slavery are synonymous terms. Recent authentic statistics prove that a sum of money equal to the entire circulating money of the country has passed from the hands of the people of that nation into the overflowing coffers of the interest-takers at least once every six months, and that means that on an average once every six months the people must rethrow the money from the interest-takers, with interest. Thus the compound power grows step by step, and if not checked, will absorb all wealth and leave labor in abject servitude."

"Second, the government must take the profit out of the money and put it into labor and products. As it now is, the profits of the dollars at interest absorb the profits of the dollars at production, and as dollars have no power to create other dollars, the profit of the dollars at interest is the only way the dollars at production, and as soon as the dollars at interest absorb the dollars at production, God's green earth and the fullness thereof have to be sacrificed to the interest-takers in order to induce a few dollars to return to the fields of production, only to be reabsorbed by the dollar at interest. Each time they draw great amounts of land and products over to the interest takers, finally the dollars at interest absorb all elements in the production."

Instead of an issue of bonds, Mr. Sovereign advocates the issuance of full legal tender non-interest-bearing money.

He then calls upon the workingmen to demand that Congress and the congress not to grant the secretary of the treasury authority to make up the proposed issue of bonds.

"Every man," he continues, "connected with the disreputable transactions, has a name branded with eternal infamy."

The Knights from Maine to California, he said, should hold indignation meetings and send unequivocal protests to their respective members in congress.

Millions of our people are in beggary and starvation because labor has been robbed year after year by a merciless power that has grown haughty and despotic over the people.

It is a sin to inflict such pain on the length and breadth of the land to put its foot down so hard on the present scheme to increase the national debt, that the very capital at Washington will tremble with the thunders of its righteous protest."

Let us do bonds and force no longer. Let as meet the $20,000,000 bond proposition with the power and fellowship of our entire organization and stay in the fight until we force a relaxation in the hand of money to rob the industrial mass."
